Director General, RDIAS

Resource Person/Facilitator: Mr. Anand Prakash Mishra, Deputy Director and Head of Admissions, Jindal Global Law School and Ms. Jasmine Ching-chi Hsu, Senior Research Associate, Jindal Global Business School

Summary: O.P Jindal Global University is a non-profit global university established by the Haryana Private Universities Act, 2009. The vision of the university is to promote global courses, programmes, curriculum, research, collaborations and interaction through a global faculty. A session was planned for the students of BBA to offer them various career options in law and management provided by the university.

Mr. Anand Prakash Mishra, speaker for the day, briefed the students about the vision that the university holds. Sir provided information about various courses which are offered by the university in diverse areas ranging from undergraduate courses to doctoral level courses. The speaker discussed about the benefits of the postgraduate and diploma courses available at the university and enlightened the students about various career options in law. Ms. Jasmine Ching-chi Hsu, the second speaker of the day, informed the students about the management courses and how one can enter into the field of management and make a career in this field. The facilitators from the university answered the queries of the students simultaneously which made the session interactive.

The lecture delivered was appreciated by the students and the detailed information shared by the speakers was helpful for students to learn plethora of options available to them after graduation.
