Date	January 27, 2018
Resource Person	Social, Cultural and Heritage Club
Summary	The most beautiful things in life are not associated with money, they are memories and moments. If you don't celebrate those, they can pass by you. Birthdays are one of the most important celebratory affairs in one's life. RDIAS believes in making a healthy organizational environment for all staff members through combined birthday celebration policy. Such chances of informal gatherings and interaction have a sound impact on creating healthy work environment and lead to one of the year's special personal events for everyone. A combined birthday's celebration was celebrated in RDIAS on January 27, 2018 for the birthdays falling between July to December 2017. Members of RDIAS family gathered to celebrate the occasion. Dean Academics Dr, Anshu Lochab, Dean Administration, Admission and Examination, Dr. Manoj Kumar Gupta and CAO Mr. M.P. Aggarwal wished the members by giving them gifts as a token of affection on the occasion of birthday celebration. The wishes were followed by cake cutting ceremony and other delicacies served. After which couple of games were played wherein participants participated voluntarily. It was a very enjoyable moment for all and to conclude it can be said that Good relationships don't just happen overnight. They need to be nurtured and given a foundation that is unshakable.
