Date	January 24, 2018
Resource Person/Facilitator	Social & Heritage Club of RDIAS in association with Red Cross Society & Human Care Foundation.
Summary	“The finest gesture one can make is to save life by donating Blood”. Blood donation is our moral & social duty and is considered to be one of the most substantial contributions that a person can make towards the society. Social & Heritage Club of RDIAS in association with Human Care Foundation & Red Cross Society organized a “Blood Donation Camp” on January 24, 2018. A blood bank team comprising doctors, nurses, and technicians visited the camp. The event started by welcoming the team from Red Cross Society & Human Care Foundation. There were 111 students and faculty members who registered for the donations and 68 students were allowed by doctors to proceed for blood donation with vivacity. The donors actively contributed in this benevolent & philanthropic event. Blood donation is our moral & social duty. The coordinators from Human Care Foundation & Red Cross Society coordinators appreciated the efforts of the institute and congratulated the authorities for successfully motivating students and faculty by creating awareness about the benefits of donating blood.
