Summary	8th March is internationally celebrated as the “International Women’s Day” every year to celebrate womanhood. It is an important occasion for all of us and makes us to pause for a moment, reflect on ourselves, appreciate how much has been done and what more needs to be done in the field of gender parity. Moreover, it is the day to acknowledge all the men and women in the world for making this world a better place for everyone to live in. RDIAS also celebrated the day with all its staff members. The purpose of organizing the day on such occasion is not just to observe the day but also to create awareness with the target of reaching each individual, community and hence thereby the nation. The program was started by congratulating and delivering pleasant words by Dean Madam Ms. Namita Garg. The program was extended with a small pledge, taken by each individual present over there. A small group photograph was clicked at the end. Arrangements of refreshments were enjoyed by everyone. The RDIAS family had optimistically participated in the program with a thought of making a great impact on the community and making them understand the fact that women and men are equal beings, deserve the same respect, opportunities and are also equally responsible for building a better future.
