| Summary                      | This was yet another time for students to jolt up innovations and creativity and to take a dip into sea of thought thinking critically about the latest happenings around them and bring out an interesting piece with emotional, analytical and writing skills. The competition began with the anchors introducing the rules to all participants. Around 7 students participated in this competition where they were given a topic on random draw basis. Total 30 minutes were given to the participants to come up with critical notes in creative form on the topics given to them. The topics included India vs Bharat, GST, The Modi Vision, Superstition, Triple Talaq and so on. The students attempted to write their best considering the constraint of time frame. The entries were judged by chairperson and student coordinator of the club. The students’ articles were judged on the parameters of originality, content, use of vocabulary and grammar, meaning and adherence to topic. Four articles were awarded prizes with first three best entries and one consolation prize. The winners for this event were: First Position - Kanishka Gupta – BBA I Semester Second Position - Shruti Saini – BBA I Semester Third Position - Shivansh – BBA IV Semester Consolation - Barkha – MBA I Semester |
