Title	Orientation Programme for the students of BBA and MBA
Date	August 1, 2017
Resource Person/Facilitator	Department of Management Studies
Summary	RDIAS Orientation program is designed to support new students and give them opportunity to acclimate to campus and ease into college life. During this two part program, for MBA and BBA students separately, they were introduced to life at the college, from academic and extra-curricular activities to resources and support services. This one day program was designed to welcome students and the planned sessions or activities on this day offered a range of perspectives on life at RDIAS. The day started with the spiritual lamp lighting to invoke blessings of Goddess Saraswati followed by an inspiring address by Director, RDIAS, Prof. Dr. Raman Garg. Thereafter, the new students were presented with the virtual tour of college by student orientation coordinators informing them about the campus, its history and traditions, as well as academic, social, and co-curricular life. On this day itself, our committed existing students were rewarded with cash prizes for obtaining meritorious positions under the category; University Subject Toppers, Student of the Month and Best Research Project for the Session 2016-2017. After the inaugural ceremony, our creative existing student members of different clubs and committees conducted innovative and entertaining activities like slogan writing, story writing, poster boy & girl etc. for new students to make them learn about these clubs, about each other and familiarize themselves with RDIAS. New students participated in the fun games enthusiastically and treasured the creative and unique decoration by the student members on their respective stalls. With their participation in different activities, students winning first three positions were rewarded with the prizes and the top scorers of the all the activities of round one further participated in round two and round three activities to win that one special prize and become the lucky one. After all the rounds, this special prize had won by Megha Katoch from MBA and Shubham Parik from BBA.

Towards the end, students' members representing different clubs and committees were also contested for the best three stalls and following were awarded with the cash prizes:

- Position III – Social and Heritage Club members
- Position II – Training and Placement Cell and Media Management Cell
- Position I –Literary Club members

This marked the end of the beautiful day followed by delicious refreshments for all students.
