

Web Report on “Creative Writing Workshop and Contest” organized by Literary Club

Title	Literary Club Activity - “Creative Writing Workshop and Contest”
Resource Person/ Facilitator	Literary Club
Date	October 14, 2017
Summary	The event of creative writing workshop and contest, aimed at bringing out the writer in students. This event was organized by the Literary Club in collaboration with Readomania – leading print and online publishers. The idea behind this activity was to enhance the creativity and imagination of the students to improve their creative writing skills. The event was organized for MBA, MCA and BBA students and invited enthusiastic participants to showcase their literary skills. The event started with anchors inviting Mr. Dipankar Mukherjee (speaker and judge for the event) who encouraged students to think creatively. The speaker also made the session interesting by showing the insights of being creative and motivating students to come up with innovative and experimental ideas, simultaneously widening up the horizons of individual thinking perspectives. After Mr. Mukherjee had explained the basics of creative writing, a contest was held to challenge the creativity of students - a flash story writing contest by choosing a combination of fascinating characters and locations. The competition was judged by Mr. Dipankar Mukherjee -founder of Readomania.com. The students were judged on the parameters of originality, content, narration and structure. 5 cash prizes were awarded in total with first three best entries of Rs. 2000, Rs. 1500 and Rs. 1000 respectively and 2 consolation prizes of 500 each. The winners for this event were: First Position - Sarthak Agarwal  Second Position - Shriya Chhabra  Third Position - Priyank Sharma  Consolation - Lovely Arya  Consolation - Nidhi Sharma