

Web Report on Auditions for Play on "Civic Issues"

Title	Dramatics Society Auditions for Play on "Civic Issues"
Date	September 14 , 2017
Resource Person/ Facilitator	Dramatics Society
Summary	If education is to serve as the lever to the great surge forward of the Indian nation, the scourge of ragging which corrodes the vitals of our campuses needs to be curbed. Ragging is an offence and is completely prohibited at RDIAS. The institute adheres to Anti Ragging policy as per the orders of the Honorable Supreme Court and AICTE on the Anti-Ragging measures and is committed to create a ragging free educational space for our students. An awareness regarding the same was shared through a performance by Dramatics team "Pratigya" for the fresh students who were enthusiast about joining the team and was ready for auditions. The play presented by senior students made new entrants realizes the expectations and skills required to be a part of Dramatics society. Around 25 students participated in auditions and presented a 1-2 minute act on the theme "Civic Issues". The students were judged on the basis of poise, originality, use of space, dramatic techniques, delivery and expressive aspects. Best performances given during auditions were also awarded with prizes and their entry into the Dramatics society. Winners of the event were: First Position - Vaishali Sachdeva, BBA I Second Position - Lovely Arya, MBA I Third Position - Riya Monga, BBA I Consolation Prizes – Parth Budhiraja, MBA I and Aman Goel, BBA I