Web Report on Trip to Jim Corbett-Nainital

Title	Excursion Trip to Jim Corbett-Nainital for the students of BBA, MBA and MCA
Date	October 01, 2017 - October 05, 2017
Summary	“Travel is the Healthiest Addiction.” Nainital and Jim Corbett National Park is famous tourist destination in Kumaon region of India’s Uttarakhand state. Jim Corbett National Park has been major attraction for tourists and wildlife lovers for a long time. An ecotourism destination, it contains diverse variety of flora and fauna. An excursion trip to Jim Corbett-Nainital was organized for all students from October 01, 2017 to October 05, 2017 to provide them an enlightening, adventurous, tremendous learning experience and time to strengthen their personal bonds. A total of 150 students accompanied by 06 faculty members along with 1 trip organizer went for the trip. The members reached Nainital on October 2, 2017 and checked into the resort “Dynasty”, near Kaladungi. This destination is famous for jaw dropping view of hills and lake. The first visit in Nainital was to nearby locations such as boating in Naini lake and the mall road market followed by a DJ Night at the Resort. It was well planned trip according to itinerary prepared for all the days which included the planning related to the visits, food and shelter facilities. The next day of the trip included Jungle safari at Ram Nagar forest area followed by a sumptuous lunch and a stay in the resort “The Den”. The students also indulged themselves in the tracking and adventure activities like rock climbing and fox climbing on the third day of the visit which

	was a worth remembering and cherishing. The students visited Girja Temple on the fourth day while on the way back to Delhi. The overall experience of the trip was mesmerizing. The students and staff enjoyed the scenic beauty of Jim Corbett and Nainital.
