

Web Report on “In-house Volunteering-Best out of waste” organized by Social & Heritage Club, RDIAS

Title	Social & Heritage Club - In-house Volunteering Best Out of waste
Date	August 19 & 26, 2017
Summary	This activity was conducted and organized to reflect our best out of waste policy and sensitizing the efforts of students towards the need of underprivileged strata of children. The items prepared were donated to the orphanage in the month of October. This was a one full day activity held at RDIAS campus. The students volunteers brought with them Old copes, drawing, T-shirt's, ice-cream sticks, crayons, rhyme book, empty candy boxes, used marriage cards, unused paper from copies and envelopes. The same were creatively transformed into Handbags, Copies, pen stands, diaries, decorative boxes, wall hangings, books marks etc. Gestures may be small for us, but it may mean the world to somebody. RDIAS believes in bringing a smile on the face of small children by providing those things which are usable. Student volunteers' whole heartedly participated and in this creative process.
