

Web Report on “Slogan Writing Competition” organized by Women’s Cell

Title	Women’s Cell activity “Slogan Writing Competition”
Date	September 9, 2017
Summary	The activity “Slogan writing competition” on women as a power of society was organized to make the students aware about the powers and rights of women. Such activities exhibit students artistic, creative and articulation skills. Our culture always gave respect to women and efforts have been made for gender inclusion at all the levels of society. Students are required to be involved in gender neutrality activities and discussions. Around 7 teams comprising of 2 students each enthusiastically participated in this competition. Firstly, anchors of the event announced the rules to all participants and gave them description of the theme. The participating teams, then, had to write and present the slogan on women as a power of society by using videos, charts, pictures or through act in one hour time. The students made captivating slogans on women empowerment using the opening sentences and put serious concerns and emotions in their expressions. The entries were judged by Dr. Neha Yadav and Dr. Vidhi Tyagi on the parameters of relevance with the theme, originality, creativity, enactment and clarity of message. To encourage the students, it was decided that best slogans will be published in RDIAS Women’s Magazine and entitled for the Magazine tag line. Also, first three best entries were awarded with certificate and prizes: The winners for this event : First Position - Ashriya Gosain and Kajal (BBA-V-M-B) Second Position - Arti Devi (BBA-III-M-A) Third Position - Munira and Megha (BBA-I)