

Web Report on Guest Lecture on “Starting Early on the Road to Financial Freedom”

Title	Guest Lecture on “Starting Early on the Road to Financial Freedom” for the students of MBA and BBA
Date	September 8, 2016
Resource Person/Facilitator	Mr. Ashish Kapur, CEO, Invest Shoppe
Summary	“Financial fitness is not a pipe dream or a state of mind. It's a reality if you are willing to pursue it and embrace it.” Financial freedom is generally used to describe the state of having sufficient personal wealth to live, without having to work actively for basic necessities. For financially independent people, their assets generate income that is greater than their expenses. The objective of this session was to create awareness amongst students towards the concept of financial freedom and how it can help them in future. The resource person explained students about the concept of financial freedom to raise basic awareness about financial well being. For financially independent people, their assets generate income that is greater than their expenses. Achieving lifelong financial success can sometimes seem like an overwhelming task. However, when developed step by step, a person can gain long-term control of finances. Sir explained how time and inflation are the core factors that tend to eat into current savings and pose a serious threat to our long-term goals in life. The facilitator provided details about various financial instruments in the market like Bonds, Shares, Derivatives, Mutual funds, Securities etc. which investors utilize to invest in the market. The lecture helped the students to learn basics about management of finances which plays a crucial role in person’s life.