

Web Report on Class Room Lecture for MBA-II Semester (I Shift)

Title	Mutual Funds
Date	March 15, 2018
Resource Person/Facilitator	Ms. Abha Mahajan, Associate Manager, Blackrock Services
Summary	Ms. Abha Mahajan discussed about the Basics of Mutual Funds with the students of MBA II Semester. She started the session by discussing the types of mutual funds followed by the common terms used in this context. She also discussed about the factors to keep in mind for selection of mutual funds and the process of buying them. She explained that a mutual fund is an investment vehicle made up of a pool of money collected from many investors. This is done for the purpose of investing in securities such as stocks, bonds, money market instruments and other assets. Mutual funds are operated by professional money managers, who allocate the fund's investments and attempt to produce capital gains and/or income for the fund's investors. Overall the session was a great learning experience for the students, as they gained immense knowledge and insights about the basics related to mutual funds.
