

Web Report on MBA Specialization Session conducted by RBL Bank

Title	Only you can change your future – MBA Specialization session
Date	January 16, 2018
Resource Person/Facilitator	Mr. Divyajot Singh – AVP Commercial Banking, RBL
Summary	Session on “Only you can change your future” was conducted with a theme to guide students about which specialization they should opt for as career in their MBA course. The session was conducted for MBA II Semester students in order to provide necessary input and guidance, before they choose their respective specializations. Students came up with lots of queries, thus making the session more interactive and useful. Mr. Divyajot Singh interacted with students and discussed about all the streams as to which skill set you must possess to choose a specialization. During this interactive session, sir focused on various dimensions of management education and discussed in detail about insights of various specializations like Marketing, Human Resource, Finance and International Business. He also discussed about the latest job profiles for all streams and provided the students with useful tips in order to make the most of the placement

	opportunities. At the end of session, he addressed the queries of the students pertaining to placement scenario and career development. The session helped students in terms of answering their queries and finally helping them out to make a decision w.r.t choosing a specialization they should opt for in MBA.
--	--