

“Session on Evolution of Legal rights of women: An initiative by Women Cell RDIAS”

Topic :	A session on Evolution of Legal rights of women by Women Cell, RDIAS
Date of event :	September 23,2011
Aim of the Event :	A session on Evolution of Legal rights of women was organized by Women Cell of RDIAS for all the students and faculty members of RDIAS. The session was taken by Mrs. Nandini Gore. Talking about her qualifications, she is an Advocate with Supreme Court and is a certified Mediator too. She holds a Post Graduate Degree (LLM) from DU, and is a Senior Partner with Karanjawala & Co. The session aimed at making everyone aware about women legal rights in India.
Event Report in brief :	Mrs. Nandini Gore started the session by discussing various Indian Penal Code sections: 392, 304B, 354. She also enlightened everyone about their legal rights in case of female feticide/Prenatal Diagnostic act/sexual harassment at work station etc. She discussed Article 14 which covered basic rights of women to live equally, new amendments and gender laws were also discussed. She also emphasized upon empowerment of women in India and discussed the difference in rights of women in western countries in comparison to women in India. She also stressed upon the importance of educating women of India and also discussed all the related legal aspects. Various articles like Article 14, 15 21 were discussed and also briefed about various cognizable and non cognizable legal criminal rights. RDIAS has done what is required and expected of a well aware and matured society. That's how we spread awareness!!

