

Web Report on Guest Lecture

Topic :	Guest Lecture on “ Oracle Database Technology ”.
Date of event :	February 12 th - 2015
Resource Person	Dr. Vipin, Oracle database trainer at Selecom technology, Noida
Summary	The session was taken by Dr. Vipin, Oracle database trainer at Selecom technology, Noida. He holds a number of certificates like OCP (Oracle certified Professional). The session aimed at introducing to students the latest Knowledge of Oracle database technology with working industry environment and their importance in the student’s professional growth in the IT industry. Dr. Vipin started the session talking about “The Database Management System”. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. He started the session with what is DBMS? – and According to him, "DBMS can be a collection of basic raw of facts, instructions and information. He had also discussed practical use of oracle in IT industry. He explained some basic concepts of joins creation of table , creation of tablespaces, basic data types, difference between basic data types in different versions of oracle. This session was very inspirational, must for every young engineer of IT industry."</li> <li>2. In the same session, Dr. vipin had shown practical implementation of shared locks and deadlock concepts in Oracle. He also explained - How we can resolve these problems using oracle 11 g version. He had created a situation of deadlock in front of all students and also told – how can a DBA can resolve this problem in a industry.</li> </ol> The speakers explained all the points in detail and handled all the queries with expertise. It was a great experience as the Guest Lecture was motivational, informative, interactive and student participated with full enthusiasm and spirit.

