

Expert Talk on “How to conduct FDPs, Conferences and how to fetch consultancies”

Title	Expert Talk on “How to conduct FDPs, Conferences and how to fetch consultancies” for the Faculty Members of Department of Management Studies
Date	February 22, 2017
Resource Person/Facilitator	Prof. Manaswani Acharya, IMI, New Delhi.
Summary	Research and Development activity plays an important role in the growth of an academician and the institutions. An Expert Talk was organized to facilitate the faculty members regarding improvement in research, conduction of Faculty Development Programmes, organizing Conferences and fetching Consultancies from various government/corporate bodies. Prof. Acharya explained pre-requisite for the Consultancies like showcasing of the work which you are doing, discussion with colleague, and thinking big. With respect to Organizing Conferences, madam stated that the faculty members should start working one year ahead, explore the existing data base, which can be used to invite expertise in the field of Academics. The facilitator concluded the session by stating that conduction of Faculty Development Programme in the institute should emphasize on the selection of relevant theme and calling the expert speakers of the discipline. The expert addressed queries of the faculty members and gave them solutions in different fields. The session enhanced the academic and intellectual environment in the Institution by providing faculty members with ways to avail opportunities to pursue research.