

Web Report on Role Play for MBA I (II Shift)

Title	CTP Activity on Role Play for the students of MBA I (II Shift)
Date	August 19, 2017 – September 1, 2017
Resource Person/Facilitator	Ms. Aarti Sehgal, CTP Coordinator
Summary	Role play includes acting out scenarios to solve problem by making story through dramatic play and practice in coping with real life situations which further facilitates social-emotional growth and development. Role play provides the skills to handle problematic social interactions, such as bullying, which may happen as they progress through life. The activity was conducted in a form of competition among rest of groups. In total there were 8 groups from each class, which further comprises of 7 students on an average in a group. In the beginning of the activity the students were given the themes of role play, instructions and guidelines on Do's and Don'ts. The students were evaluated on the basis of focus on topic, group coordination, justice to role given, audience captivity and conclusion. Maximum time limit given to act upon the given was 15-20 minute followed by feedback. Role Play winners from MBA I E A: Lokesh Aggarwal, Aakash Ahlawat, Kartik Sharma, Parul Vashisht, Jyoti Bajaj, Disha Garg, Luv Gandhi Role Play winners from MBA I E B: Jannief Simar, Jasleen Kaur, Puneet Sood, Priyank Sharma, Kritika Tondon, Yashika Garg, Mohit Yadav, Rachita