Part 1

Aim of the event :

The competition was organized for MBA and BBA students so that they can explore more in their interest area and be able to learn and develop analytical and logical thinking skills along with working in a team. Teamwork also taught them about how to coordinate and enhance their knowledge. This activity also helped the students to expand their network areas and build self-confidence. The key learning was – “Finance is not a tough subject if considered and studied in an engaging, fun-filled lively way”.

Part 2

Abstract :

Finwiz: The Finance club of RDIAS organized an event called “BUDGET PE CHARCHA” for the students of MBA and BBA on February 20, 2019 from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM in Lecture theatre. This activity was held for the students so that they can enhance their knowledge and skills. Total students who enthusiastically participated in the event were 24, divided into 12 teams consisting of 2 members each.

RDIAS provided students a platform where they can showcase their knowledge and skills and also enhance them by participating in such activities. There were two rounds in the activity.

The first round was “Quiz round”. In this round, there were 12 teams and they were given questionnaire encompassing a few questions related to Budget that were to be completed within the time limit of 10 minutes.

The second round was “Presentation Round”. This round was a Presentation round in which the teams have to give presentation on how sectors of economy are affected by new budget given the time duration of 7 mins. There was a negative marking in this round for the teams who had exceed the time limit. After this round the marks of both the round is combined and evaluated and we get our winners of this event.

The event was judged Mr. Rahul Kakkar, founder AKCONSIS. Mr. Rahul has been the founder & a visionary team member of AKCONSIS. He brought with him years of rich professional experience in helping clients of India & International markets to transform their business through sales and marketing excellence.
