Part 2

Abstract :

The Central Vigilance Commission observes the Vigilance Awareness Week every year. The 2018 Vigilance Awareness Week is being observed from 29th October to 3rd November. The theme of Vigilance Awareness Week-2018 is “Eradicate Corruption-Build a New India”. Punjab national bank, Madhuban chownk arranged a sensitization programme and a competition at RDIAS for the students of MBA to promote awareness on the same.

Mr. Rajiv Dixit , Lead District Manager, North -West Delhi, PNB

In his address enlightened the participants with the ill-effects of corruption and discussed that the corruption has been one of the major obstacles to economic, political and social progress of our county. All stakeholders such as Government, citizens and private sector need to work together to eradicate corruption. On the same day a debate competition was organised on the theme “HOW TO ERADICATE CORRUPTION”. Students participated actively and expressed their views on the present situation of corruption in India and how to achieve the desired goal of a corruption-free nation.

After the lecture they organised a debate competition among students about “HOW TO ERRADICATE CORRUPTION” .Various students take participation nd share their views which helps other to know more about the causes and how to solve them. At the end the winners were decided and were awarded by the speakers.

The best three participants got appreciated with prizes and were declared as winners by the judges.

1. Arnav Dixit MBA-Ist shift ,Sec B(1st prize)
2. Tarushi Bokolia MBA-Ist shift , Sec B(2nd prize)
3. Astha Bhardwaj-MBA-Ist shift, Sec A(3rd prize)

Part 3

Conclusion

Corruption is the use of unethical methods to get favors from others. In India, it is a deadly, undesirable and wicked sin which is adversely affecting the economy. Overall it was a knowledgeable and great learning experience for the students.
