Part 1

Aim of the event :

This was a fun filled activity which not only helped the students to check their creativity but they enjoyed themselves enacting some of the famous stories from movies. The primary aim of the event was to make the creative minds of students come up with an interesting story ending which could have been used instead of the actual plot of the film specifically keeping in mind the Indian audience.

Part 2

Abstract :

To mark the beginning of festival mood, this event was organized by the Literary Club to bring out the creative best of students in a fun filled way. The participants were given famous stories from movies, they had to change the climax and enact the new scripted ending. Students were seen participating in a group of 4 where they were to play characters of the original movie and bring a new freshness to the old story by twisting the end.

There were 8 participant teams comprising 4 members in each team. The participants were given a story whose ending was twisted & presented. Students were asked to pick up chits in which story name was written. A time frame of 4 minutes for preparation and 3 minutes for enactment were given to each team.

The entries were judged by Ms. Shuchi Dixit – Assistant Professor, RDIAS and Dr. Tripti Toor – Associate Professor. The students were judged on the parameters of creativity, presentation, coordination and concept. Three best teams were awarded first, second and third prize. The winning teams were as follows :

First Position - Karandeep Singh, Mitanshu Raj, Lakshay Kochar and Hitesh (MBA I SEM)

Second Position - Lovely Arya, Inderpreet Kaur, Manavi Sharma and Megha Katoch (MBA-III SEM)

Third Position - Ajay Rana, Amit Mishra, Shivani Gulati and Simran Rani(MBA-I SEM)

Part 3

Conclusion

The activity saw participation with a lot of zest and enthusiasm. It enabled the students to bring out their creative best in terms of forming a new story and presenting it.
