

Specialization Session on Finance

TITLE	Specialization Session on Finance
Date	Mar 07, 2019 - Mar 07, 2019
Summary	A specialization session on Finance was conducted by CA Vandana Gupta for MBA second semester students on the 7th of March. The speaker Ms. Gupta held an interactive session in the lecture theater, to guide students on different aspects of Finance. She started the session by introduction of MBA in finance importance of consultant in portfolio management and answering to one of the major questions that how MBA in finance provides an edge over the CA. Taking the session further she explained the different sectors of finance, i.e. banking, investment banking, insurance, loan management, wealth management, asset management and hedge funds. Later discussing about the career opportunities an MBA has credit Analyst, Accounts Manager, Risk and insurance manager, Treasurer, Finance manager, Cash Manager, CFO, VP (finance) and Finance Director. Talking about finance as one of the most lucrative career in the industry, also how practical knowledge and academia can help to boost an individual's intellect regarding financial insights. Concluding the session she helped the students with their doubts and questions regarding differences between HR, Marketing and Finance Managers. Comparison of MBA Finance & MBA Marketing revealed that finance people have huge achievements in terms of money, and for marketers the salary depends on achievement of targets. The crux of the entire presentation was that if one stops learning, one will deteriorate over a period of time and become obsolete. One needs to constantly self-evaluate in order to avoid being outmoded.