Lecture on Surgical Strike Day

TITLE	Submission of Web Report on Lecture on Surgical Strike Day
Resource Person/ Facolitator	Prof. Col. (Retd.) Mahander Singh
Date	26/09/2018
Summary	The guest lecture was organized by the college to mark the 2nd Anniversary of surgical strikes. On 29th September 2016, border skirmishes between India and Pakistan began, following the reported surgical strikes by Indian army against militant launch pads across the LOC in Pakistan administered azad Kashmir. The Indian operation was said to be in retaliation for a militant attack on the Indian army at Uri on 18th September in the Indian administered state of Jammu and Kashmir that left our 19 soldiers dead. In the succeeding days and months, India and Pakistan continued to exchange fire along the border in Kashmir, resulting in dozens of military and civilian casualties on both sides. Prof. Col. (Retd.) Mahander Singh who was also the former director of the college was present to share his views and knowledge about the same with the same. Sir not only gave the students a brief introduction about the meaning and necessity of surgical strikes but also inform the students about how the partition between India & Pakistan happened and the current Kashmir problem going on between the two countries. Sir also educated the students about the relations and various security issues India has with its neighboring countries and how better can it be handled. Later on a video was also shown to the students which depicted the entire scenario and process of how actually surgical strikes actually took place. The session was concluded with sir suggesting some ways of how the existing situation can be handled in a better way, inculcating enormous amount of respect towards our army and soldiers and how we as students being the future of our country can contribute towards its peace and security.
