| Summary                      | Rangoli is an art form used by people in India. It is a type of decoration drawn on the ground or sidewalk in front of a house. Rangoli has a purpose; it is used to “enlighten” or to welcome Hindu gods to the household and originates from two words ‘Rang’ which means colors and ‘Holi’ which means celebration. It is one of the best event which student enjoy most so Social &amp; Heritage Club, RDIAS organized “Rangoli Making Competition”, on Diwali Eve to bring the spiritual angle to create energy centers, which can have positive impact on people. The pools of energy created by specific patterns of Rangoli motivate and channelize positive energy in people. Education and competition are two common elements of all human values. Any kind of competition plays an important role in academic achievement because it helps students to know their strengths and improve their performance. This Rangoli Competition was of one and half hour in which, the students tried to prove their talent in the best possible way. They made different Rangolis depicting beautiful pictures of “Ganesh ji, “Kalash”, “Kumbh”, “Peacock which is the ride of Mata Saraswati” and some students also depicted the safe and green Deepawali through their Rangoli etc. More than 20 teams participated in the competition from BBA and MBA. Through this type of competitions, the students also learn Group effort, team spirit and individual inputs in the form of planning, designing, outlining, analyzing the colour combinations and presenting the final Rangoli made the day for the winning teams. Winners for the event were: First Position - Sakshi Gupta, Dolly, Juhi Singhal, Vishaka Gupta, Kanishka Gupta(BBA V M ) Second Position - Prachy Singhal Nancy Goel, Himany Seth, Shivani Munjal, Ayush (MBA -I-EB) Third Position - Damanpreet Kaur, Niharika Mahajan, Jaspreet Kaur, Vaibhav Guglani, Rishabh Aggarwal (MBA III E-B) |
