Entrepreneurship Summit – Alumni Edition April 6, 2019

The Centre for Idea, Innovation, Incubation and Entrepreneurship (CIIE) in collaboration with Kshitij, Alumni Club organized an Entrepreneurship Summit Alumni Edition on April 6, 2019. The summit was an opportunity for students to connect with one of the best and brightest minds to explore how to fuel their business growth. The resource persons for the day were leading alumni of the institute Mr. Anurag Oberoi (MBA 1999-2001), Founder and CEO at Aces Consultancy and Export Solutions and Mr. Yash Bansal (MBA 2009-2011), CEO at Spadent India Pvt Ltd.

Session was interactive and all queries of students were handled so that they are directed to path of growth and change. The young students learnt the key skill sets required for early-stage entrepreneurship. And how to structure terms and conditions between entrepreneurs and external investors.

JOURNEY @ RDIAS

Q 1: What role has RDIAS played in grooming your career in Human Resource?

Answer: Overall it was a brilliant experience to be at RDIAS. But if I talk specific to HR grooming sessions it was an average experience as we did not have any club specific to HR or any extra trainings or courses pertaining to HR during our time. But one thing I loved the most was my enhancement in my interview skills.

Q 2: How has placement cell at RDIAS assisted in meeting dynamic needs of corporate?

Answer: The placement assistance from the placement department was good. One thing I would like to tell that our placement department is a good example of great teamwork and perfect leadership.

Q 3: What are the challenges you faced in your career?

Answer: The initial challenge faced by me was getting into right job that suits my interest area and the second most important challenge I faced was how should I compete in the highly competitive industry.

Q 4: How was your overall journey from RDIAS to corporate sector?

Answer: Overall it was a brilliant experience to be at RDIAS. I really loved the activities organised by different clubs and committee. The best part of RDIAS is that it has a huge trust on its students. All activities that were organized were wholly student centric that was the most important part for the development of the student.

Q 5: Is there any message you want to give to students who are pursuing MBA and will be joining corporate in future?

Answer: To my young friends I would like to say that people always say that the number of HR jobs in the industry is very less. But, I feel that if you are passionate towards your career then it doesn't matter whether jobs are less, you will surely get a job.

Also, in the beginning of your career, don't run behind money just focus on your development and getting good job.

Specific to HR students your major project should be in HR, should have HR analytics certification, sound knowledge of MS office (specifically excel and advance excel)

Q 1: What role has RDIAS played in grooming your career in Human Resource?

Answer: RDIAS had played satisfactory role in grooming my career in Human Recourse Management. But it can be brilliant if college can provide any one of the certification related to HR. But I could say that one thing that college has enhanced is my interview skills and increased my confidence level through letting us participate in various events.

Q 2: How has placement cell at RDIAS assisted in meeting dynamic needs of corporate?

Answer: The placement assistance from the placement department was good. Everything was well managed.

Q 3: What are the challenges you faced in your career?

Answer: The initial challenge faced by me was selecting right subject then going forward and getting job of my interest area. Most important is competing in the highly competitive industry.

Q 4: How was your overall journey from RDIAS to corporate sector?

Answer: Overall it was a brilliant experience to be at RDIAS. I really loved the activities organised by different clubs and committee.

Q 5: Is there any message you want to give to students who are pursuing MBA and will be joining corporate in future?

Answer: I would like to emphasize on the importance of live projects. During your MBA, have at least two live projects in their respective areas. Be updated and acquire certifications in your Major or Minor subjects.

Q 1: What role has RDIAS played in grooming your career in Finance?

Answer: Not just finance, total makeover of me has been done by my favourite teachers in RDIAS like Mr. Manocha, Mr. Verma and Mr. Mittal. I almost miss them every day in my life. Blessed to have such teachers. They encouraged doing presentations, reading foreign authors, going to library each day and many more stuff like that to make us knowledgeable and presentable.

Q 2: How has placement cell at RDIAS assisted in meeting dynamic needs of corporate?

Answer: In my days, Prof. Verma was the in charge of placement cell. I haven't seen any teacher taking so much pain in others life for internship and final placement. For current students, work hard with placement cell to make the corporate connections and bring in better companies. Just like students need high paid jobs, Industry needs good employees. Also make one start up cell, where domain expert teacher to give assistance to students, ask them for making a project and present the same in front of angels. It will help a lot to develop start up.

Q 3: What are the challenges you faced in your career in Finance?

Answer: I am a stock broker, member of all the Indian Exchanges and depository participant.

Just like medical doctors, we are financial doctors, and a part of life line of India. Just imagine kind of pressure and challenges I can face in my carrier. Every day is a challenge to sustain and to grow. Risk management and Risk mitigation are the most important element before rewards. So the policy of sustainable development is important in financial sector. I faced carrier risk in a way that whenever there is a recession in Indian stock market or world stock market, the recession can be for years. So we have to think of making it a going concern.

Q 4: How was your overall journey from RDIAS to corporate sector?

Answer: I am having a family business, so the start was easy, path is difficult. In true sense, its competition related and Risk management related things. Every day is a challenge.

Q 5: Is there any message you want to give to students like us who are pursuing MBA and will be joining corporate in future?

Answer: Go 100%, not 99 or 98 figures, only 100%. Also, check regularly what the need of the hour is. Like Data Science, Data Analytics, Marketing Analytics, CFP, CFA, FRM, NISM, NCFM, IIBF etc. check short term programs like ICOFP, NSE, BSE, IIBF etc. It will open up your mind and certainly give you an edge over others. All the best for future, happy Investing.

ALUMNI SPEAK

How do you define happiness?

Adding value with a greater impact makes me happy. For example, our planning leaves a huge positive impact on client's financial lives. An insurance recommendation may come in handy when the inevitable happens, a cash reserve may help ward off a last minute expense, and the list is quite long. Since advisors review client's financial situation year on year, seeing the real-life impact of recommendations makes me happy and proud.

An advice for a beginner

Learn, learn, learn some more. Always look at the bigger picture! What we do day in and out helps drive our firm's brand promise.

Describe your role and how your work contributes in helping/ supporting advisors?

I lead a team of two financial planning analysts and together we support Ameriprise Advisors Group financial advisors with their entire financial planning process. We deep-dive into each client's personal financial situation, including but not limited to their net worth, cash flow, mortgage and other loans, income, expenses, investments, insurance, etc. after an advisors collects this information, we entire it in the planning software. Then we conduct a conference call with the advisor to strategize about various aspects of the financial plan.
