

Industrial visit at Om Logistics for BBA and MBA

TITLE	Industrial visit at Om Logistics for BBA and MBA
Date	Feb 05, 2020 - Feb 05, 2020
Summary	RDIAS organized an Industrial visit to Om Logistics Pvt Ltd, Binola Industrial Area, Gurgaon for the students of MBA and BBA with a view to give the students an exposure to the process of coordinating and moving resources materials, inventory, and equipment – from one location to storage at the desired. A total of 31 students from MBA & BBA were part of the visit. Om Logistics Management had deputed Mr Arjun Prajapati, Senior Executive, Training & Learning Deptt. who took a 45 minutes classroom session on the functions of their Logistic Division, to include functions of Transshipment Plant, Logistic Plant. The faculty apprised about their network of 500 branches, strategic locations numbering 1000, hubs, fulfillment centers and how the transportation of the supplies undertake. He also educated on the various stages of assembly of goods, packaging, transportation to warehouse, the inventory management and distribution of the goods to the defined location. The documentation process required , such as Invoice, E-Way Bill and AGR (Docket/Bilti) were also explained. A case study was also discussed with the students, besides the complications arising due to damage of the consignments, poor handling, accidents and the legalities involved. Thereafter, visit to the warehouse was carried out where the practical working of the logistic system was shown to the students, including the documents, the bond system etc. The visit was an eye opener for one and all as to how the goods are transported to the destinations in schedule time, the tracking of the shipments etc. The students were eagerly asking the doubts which were replied to their satisfaction. The facilitator touched upon the elementary aspects of Supply Chain Management.