Summary	On 14th may 2020, an unstoppable historic "E-YOUTH PARLIAMENT" on the topic UNIFORM CIVIL CODE was organized by CREDENCE CLUB of RUKMINI DEVI INSTITUTE OF ADVANCE STUDIES. The event continued for three hours and was held on video conferencing Application "GOOGLE MEET ". In this mega event, in all 80 registrations were received out of which 70 students participated whole heartedly and with great enthusiasm. The parliamentary session commenced by the joining of the judges MA'AM SHUCHI DIKSHIT, MA'AM KOMAL JAIN, from the student panel AKARSH SRIVASTAVA (speaker) and AMAN SHARMA (Deputy Speaker) . The event started with a welcome speech given by the respected speaker of the 17th LOK SABHA, AKARSH SRIVASTAVA. It was accompanied by the melodious NATIONAL ANTHEM. The procedure of the session started with the ROLE CALL by the DEPUTY SPEAKER – AMAN SHARMA. Opening statements were called by the speaker where 20 MP'S were followed by the PRIME MINISTER Mr. NARENDER MODI who raised his voice against the present importance and requirements of UCC. Meanwhile few POI'S (point of information), POO'S (point of order) and Parliamentary queries from other MP'S were entertained by the SPEAKER and rest were communicated through CHITS which was enables by making What's App group. Also groups were made for both the sides for discussions. Rahul Gandhi, Sonia Gandhi, Shashi Tharoor, Assaduddin Owaisi and few more quoted that it would be a mad government for applying UCC without having the consent of minorities. Whereas, the MP'S from ruling party like Anupriya Patel, Prahlad Joshi , G Krishan Reddy quoted their saying by the slogan "one nation ; one law" and also said that it promotes gender parity , supports national integration moreover it provide equal status to all citizens . Moving on Adhiranjan Chaudhary was the last speaker who said that it is practically tough to come up with a common set of rules for personal issues moreover BJP government only works for the Hindu's and oppressed the minorities. Then the Parliament proceeded to the private session of 10 minutes where both the ruling and opposition party discussed on the various motion. Afterwards the head speaker ask the government to raise the motion but ruling party failed to do so may be due to some network issues meanwhile the MP Assaudin Owaisi from opposition party strongly raised the motion on " SOCIAL IMPACT OF UCC

ON MINORITIES " and the motion get approved through voting .

Moving on the PRIME MINISTER passes the bill on UNIFORM CIVIL CODE encoded with various clauses including Halala, Polygamy, Bigamy, Dowry ,Triple Talaq and much more but due to network failure it was not communicated well and the opposition protest by turning off their video cameras and microphone and when bill was passed by the head speaker opposition revert back by walking out from the session .

The session was ended by the striking and strong words by speaker AKARSH SRIVASTAVA who showed his concern by saying " whenever the motion of equality should rise ; it shouldn't count any gender, caste, creed or religion ! BUT still after the 70 years of freedom our Muslim and Hindu women's are abandoned from their RIGHT TO LIVE"
