The discipline, patience, courage, and optimism learnt on the playgrounds are the qualities that lead to victory not just in sports but in all the aspects of life. It is with this objective that the event was organized and it managed to achieve it in its true sense and meaning. The event culminated on the note that we shall meet again in the next year on the playground being more resolute, hungrier for success but above all with the firm belief and intent that being defeated is not losing but quitting surely is.

The event was a confluence of activities, fun, frolic and not to forget. This platform proved to be a relief for the alumni from their grueling work schedule .It also provided ample space and opportunity for alumni to strengthen the bond with their Alma Mater.
