FORM A

Proposal :

- Name Of the event to be organized : "Rangoli Making Competition"
- Date : November 5 , 2018
- Time : 1:30-4:00
- Venue : B-Block First, Second and third floor corridors.
- Organized By: Social and Heritage Club
- Motivation for the activity : The Colors makes things memorable, meaningful and significant. Rangoli is representative of festivity and creativity by colors. Drawing rangoli means revelation of beauty and the acquisition of auspiciousness and this competition was organized to bring their creativity out and inculcate the traditional values in students. Rangoli has a purpose; it is used to “enlighten ” or to welcome Hindu gods to the household and originates from two words ‘Rang’ which means colors and ‘Holi’ which means celebration.

Part 1

Aim of the event :

Rangoli is an art form used by people in India. It is a type of decoration drawn on the ground or sidewalk in front of a house. The main objective for this event is to encourage students for celebrating Diwali in an innovative way and they should remain in close touch with their culture. This competition brings out very creative and innovative ideas, techniques, talents and their personal ability. Rangoli has a purpose; it is used to "enlighten" or to welcome Hindu Gods to the household or work place.

Part 2

Abstract :

Rangoli Competition is one of the best events which enjoyed by the students so Social & Heritage Club, RDIAS had organized it on Diwali Eve to bring the spiritual angle to create energy centers, which can have positive impact on people. The pools of energy created by specific patterns of Rangoli motivate and channelize positive energy in people. Education and competition are two common elements of all human values. Any kind of competition plays an important role in academic and overall achievement of a student's life because it helps them to know their strengths and improve their performance.

This Rangoli Competition was of one and half hour long during which, the students has to make the rangoli based on the theme "GREEN DIWALI SPARKLING DIWALI" using different colors, flowers and many other accessories and all the participants had tried to prove their talent in the best possible way. They made different Rangolis depicting beautiful pictures of "Ganesh ji, "Kalash", "Kumbh", "Peacock which is the ride of Mata Saraswati" and some students also depicted the safe and green Diwali through their innovative ideas etc. More than 15 teams had participated in the competition from BBA and MBA. Through this type of competitions, the students also learn Group effort, team spirit and individual inputs in the form of planning, designing, outlining, analyzing the colour combinations and presenting the final Rangoli.

The theme was given to the students beforehand via the RDIAS portal Notice as "Green Diwali Sparkling Diwali" to sensitize students about the harmful effects of fire crackers as well as brightness of the festival Diwali.

A total of more than 15 teams participated in the competition and the competition was judged by the judges on the following criteria's like: Creativity, Color Combination, Accessories used and Overall appearance. There was a tough competition and judges were facing problem to judge them. The result was as follows:

Winners:

First Position – Sakshi Gupta, Dolly, Juhi Singhal, Vishaka Gupta, Kanishka Gupta(BBA V M )

Second Position – Prachi Singhal, Nancy Goel, Himani Seth, Shivani Munjal, Ayush (MBA –I-EB)

Third Position – Damanpreet Kaur, Niharika Mahajan, Jaspreet Kaur, Vaibhav Guglani, Rishabh Aggarwal (MBA III E-B)

Part 3

Conclusion

The Indian festivals are all full of energy, positivity, art and a great promoter of community. Diwali is a festival which delights the environment; bring happiness and prosperity in life. There is a common ritual which is of great interest to every Indian i.e. Rangoli – the beautiful combination of colors and shapes. The variety and innovation in the Rangoli designs are proof that creativity is found in each person in our country. During the competition all the participants were in their full energy and enthusiasm and they enjoyed a lot throughout the event.
