

Open discussion on Team building: An Opportunity or Challenge for Employer?

TITLE	Open discussion on Team building: An Opportunity or Challenge for Employer?
Date	Apr 02, 2019 - Apr 02, 2019
Summary	The HR Club has always been tried to get some out of the box activities for its students. Open discussion on team building-an opportunity or challenge for employer was a discussion activity in which students were discuss and present their relevant thoughts. Team building is a collective term for various types of activities used to enhance social relations and define roles within teams, often involving collaborative tasks Team building is one of the most widely used group-development activities in organizations. Team building has been scientifically shown to positively affect team effectiveness. Goal setting and role clarification were shown to have impact on cognitive, effective, process and performance outcomes. There are some challenges of team work for employer as well. Student moderator Shivangi Bindal from MBA SEM-IV introduced the topic and tells that a team is a group of people who come together temporarily to achieve a purpose. Together Everyone Achieve More. After that Esha student of MBA II Sem started with the discussion and she highlighted her point as team building is more of challenge for an employer than opportunity. Nikita Kukreja student of MBA II sem also tells about the Importance of team and every participant participated actively. Further topics like 5 P's of team building ie People,Place,Person,Power,Plan, and how sometimes team building become a challenge and opportunity for employer were also discussed. In end the students summarized the discussion by giving their viewpoints on what they understood from one-hour GD session. The discussion ended with every participant and coordinator posing for the group photo along with the Student Moderators and the Faculty members.