Summary

The MUN Society of Credence Club will be organizing a panel debate on 10th April 2019 for which the preliminary round to shortlist the students was held on 2nd April 2019.

Online registrations were taken by students and the topics were given to students in advance which were:

1. Can terror and talks, culture and sports go together?
2. Is neutrality of media in question? With special emphasis on Media Law

Each debater had to speak in favor or against it for two minutes. A panel of four members from the committee of the society was made for cross questioning after the participants had delivered their viewpoint.

The panel members consisted of :

1. Mr. Akarsh Shrivastava, BBA, President
2. Mr. Sanchit Arora, BBA, Vice-President
3. Mr. Hari Om, MBA, Head of Sponsoring team
4. Ms. Hansee Rawat, MBA, Treasurer

The criteria of judgment were articulation, clarity of message, confidence, audience impact & content. Out of the 22 participants, the judge shortlisted 8 students to participate in the final round of the event. The judge of the event, Dr. Deepika Arora shared her feedback with the students in which she encouraged the students to keep participating in such events and also suggested the students to support their opinions with facts and figures. She emphasized on the importance of modulation in the speech and how it would be helpful for an effective debater. Dr. Deepika was thanked by the club faculty and student members at the end of the event.

Overall the event was appreciated by the participating students as it was able to provide a platform to the students for practicing their communication skills.
