Summary

The Credence Club of RDIAS is always trying to help the upcoming great debaters and speakers. This time the club members organized a workshop and debate for students. The motive of the workshop was Effective delivery of speeches and to understand the basics of Model United Nations (MUN). The topic for the debate was Developmental Agendas for Nation.

Ms. Shivangani Anand who has more than 45 MUNs started with a basic introduction of MUN in very simple words. She started from the very basic of MUN i.e. how a roll call takes place in an MUN and how is it different from the normal roll call. She further explained the meaning and different aspects of Formal Debate and Informal Debate. She focused upon different committees under United Nations.

She told students about the minute details of MUN. She explained how to form a Draft of Resolution and what is point of privilege.

After that workshop, a debate session was conducted where 8 members of the club discussed upon the topic and President of the club represented our Honourable Prime Minister of India and Shivangani Mam represented Ms. Priyanka Gandhi (Member of Congress Party).

The motive of the debate discussion was:-

1. To give an idea to students regarding what actually happens in debate.
2. How to formally present your point of views.

After the discussion the event came to an end and important points discussed by our Guest was noted down for future reference.
