TITLE	Submission of Web Report for "Diwali Celebration for RDIAS Family"
Resource Person/ Facolitor	Social & Heritge Club
Date	06/11/2018
Summary	The celebration of Diwali , 'The festival of lights' came alive at RDIAS on November 06, 2018. The rangoli done by students the previous day added the perfect setting to the festivity The Institute wore a festive look with bright and sparkling rangoli everywhere in campus. RDIAS Family members talked about the significance of the festival and their memories associated with this celebration when they were in school. Besides sharing their memories few faculty members talked on the sensitive issue of the ill-effects of crackers. The celebrations started with : (a)Treasure Hunt competition where in 7 teams comprising of 5 members each participated whole heartedly and left no stone unturned to search the entire campus for cues hidden in different places line under the door mat, trees, water coolers etc. Team comprising of Ms. Tanuja Saroha, Mr. Anurag Tiruwa, Ms Sakshi Gupta , Ms Khushboo Bhadoria and Mr. Ravi Prakash Jeewal won the treasure hunt. (b) The Second game played was Dumb charades - A game in which movies names were mentioned in the chits. One person was asked to enact which others had to guess. It was a fun filled event giving way to use imagination in expressing the movie name by actions only. (c) The Third activity was Just a Minute Activities where different question and activities were mentioned in power point presentation and participants had to attempt those questions or activities like most matching person, words starting with F, Name of states from hindi synonyms etc. were a few questions asked. The activities was followed by lunch we believe that a family that eats together stays together. All in all it was a nice day well spent by RDIAS family member's and such gathering brings out the child in them and creates a bonding and festivity to the overall environment.
