

Web Report of “ Financial Workshop by Karvy Stock Broking

Title	Financial Workshop by Karvy Stock Broking 2018
Date	August 20 and 21, 2018
Resource Person/ Facilitator	Mr. Parvez Shaikh , Head – KSBL Training Mr. Jitendra Rawal , Manager – Training at Karvy Stock Broking Ltd
Summary	In today’s competitive world, having additional skills relevant to industry requirements is of much importance. On this note, Karvy stock broking officials introduce students to their Karvy SEAL (Student Engagement and Applied Learning) Program, where by gives students a broader understanding on the Financial Market (India & Global) covering holistic topics like importance of investments, Primary Market & Secondary Market, Investment options like Equity, Debt, Real-Estate, Gold, Mutual funds and Derivatives. The event witnessed the footfall of 157 students from MBA I and III semester. The session started with the general introduction of BFSI (Banking, Financial services & Insurance) sector. This introduction included Banking, Insurance, Asset Management Companies, NBFC’s, Stock broking, Merchant Banking & Investment banking. Further the session discussed about various Investment Class (Equity, Debt, Gold and Real Estate). The risk-return characteristics of these investment classes were also discussed. The session was continued with detailing related to participants in Capital Market i.e., Primary Market & Secondary Market; their products and characteristics were shared and discussed. Next day the sessions related to Derivatives Market (Futures and Options) was conducted. Lastly, the topic of Mutual Fund was introduced and discussed. Further students were also engaged in real time discussions and role plays. Afterwards officials gave them insights and learning of stock trading on live platform.

Post the completion of the workshop, students were awarded with Certificate of completion and study material also provided to them.

Overall, the session was nonetheless insightful and students gained an understanding on Financial markets as they were enriched with the good knowledge.