

Preliminary Round for CrossFire

TITLE	Preliminary Round for CrossFire
Date	Jan 20, 2020 - Jan 20, 2020
Summary	The MUN Society of Credence Club conducted preliminary round of Crossfire to shortlist the students for the final panel debate competition. The topics were given to students in advance which were: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Is freedom of expression really under threat today?</li> <li>2. Does Veer Savarkar deserve Bharat Ratna?</li> </ol> Each debater had to speak in favor or against the motion for two minutes. A panel of two members from the MUN society was made for cross questioning after the participants had delivered their viewpoint. The panel members consisted of : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Mr. Akarsh Shrivastava , BBA , President</li> <li>2. Mr. Aman Sharma, BBA, Logistics Head</li> </ol> The judges for the event were Ms. Sonali Arora &amp; Mr. Deepak Chhabra The criteria of judgment were Articulation, clarity of message, confidence, Communication Skills, Defense &amp; content. Out of the 15 participants, the judges shortlisted 9 students to participate in the final round of the event. The judges shared their feedback with the students in which they encouraged the students to keep participating in such events and also suggested the students to speak with conviction and focus on what are the takeaways from the event so to be better prepared for upcoming debates. Selected students were briefed on how to prepare for the final round.