

COVID19 How to be safe & sane

TITLE	COVID19 How to be safe & sane
Date	Apr 27, 2020 - Apr 27, 2020
Summary	A Webinar on the topic COVID 19: How to be safe and sane was organized on 27th April 2020 for both faculty members and students. The resource person for the webinar was Dr. Arun Kumar Sharma ,Director-Professor in the department of Community Medicine and Head of the Department of Biostatistics & Medical Informatics at University College of Medical Sciences. The session was informative and knowledgeable from the perspective of the current situation. Dr. Arun Sharma touched upon the basic understanding of the COVID-19 virus and how it affects people. He elaborated on the causes and effects of the said virus on the human population. He discussed the symptoms and the effective precautions to be taken to avoid getting infected by the said virus. Overall it was an important session as it was focused on the precise and reliable information from a certified medical practitioner. The session helped the participants in understanding the COVID-19 virus pandemic and learns the best ways to protect themselves and their families by means of preventive measures.